Information Items:

4. Conference Results – May 22, 2004

Donna gave a summary of the conference held in Rancho Cucamonga on May 22, 2004. The program was well received and all participants seemed to thoroughly enjoy all the speakers. The panel of experts was particularly appreciated. Donna brought the evaluations for the committee to review. Most participants gave high marks in all categories. Donna will tally the responses and report back to the committee.

5. Future Plans for SB1703

Nancy described a general direction that she wants the SB1703 project to take. That direction includes the continuation of trainings as have been developed in the past, as well as a mentoring piece for all child care providers. Applications and interest cards have been developed and passed out at the recent trainings for potential mentors. Nancy will bring more to the next Child Care & Planning Council meeting on June 9th.

6. Plans for June 5th Conference

1. The same format used on May 22nd will be used for the June 5th conference. I few of the speakers will change, but the same format will stay the same. Donna will report back to the committee during the next meeting on June 22, 2004.
